Dear Sirs:

I have sought attorneys from my "HOME AREAS" and in and out of state. I have used the Lawyer Referral Service to no avail. I have used the internet also and have not been able to find an Attorney. I am listing a few of the Attorneys I have contacted and most of these have provided return paper work stating they were not able to take my case. I am providing a few samples.

Yours Truly,
Roger Reeves

RE: Your Potential EEOC Claim

Dear Mr. Reeves:

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to review your potential claim. I regret to inform you that I will be unable to assist you with this matter and have closed my file.

Be advised that there is a statute of limitations to your case. Therefore, you must take action on your claims within the period prescribed by the statute of limitations. If you fail to take action within that period, you may be barred thereafter from bringing any legal action based on these facts. Consequently, it is important that you contact another attorney immediately if you intend to pursue this matter.

Again, thank you for allowing me to review this potential claim for you. If I may be of any assistance to you in the future, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

PENN & SEABORN, L.L.C.

Re: Employment matter with DSI Security Services

Dear Mr. Reeves:

This is to confirm the phone call of approximately a week ago from my office regarding my inability to represent you with your potential claim. After speaking with the attorney in Birmingham, I was advised of the following concerning your claim:

- 1) That "hostile work environment" cases are VERY hard to win as everyone is free to seek employment elsewhere.
- 2) That since you are still employed, that you probably don't have damages sufficient to economically justify filing a lawsuit.
- 3) That normally, if there is a good claim for damages, this attorney prefers to file the EEOC complaint himself.

Please don't construe these factors as an indication that your claims don't have merit regarding the issues of discrimination, poor salary history, and other derogatory treatment concerning you and/or your religious beliefs. This particular attorney just doesn't feel that he can justify filing this case from an economic standpoint considering the likelihood of a good recovery.

In the event that you continue to pursue this claim with another attorney, please do so in a timely manner as failure to file by a certain date could jeopardize any future recovery.

I appreciate you allowing me to look into this for you and if I can help you with other matters, please do not hesitate to give me a call.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely,

John F. Robertson
